DATA PRIVACY AND CONSENT

Please read this section together with your parent or official guardian. By answering Yes to the questions below, you confirm that your parent/guardian has read it and agrees.

By accomplishing this form, you understand and agree that Batangas College of Arts and Sciences, Inc. will collect, use, and store your personal information and responses.

This data collection is strictly for the institution's stated goals, vision, and mission, and is conducted in full accordance with the Data Privacy Act of 2012 (Republic Act No. 10173).

- The academic scholarship screening, facilitated by academic heads, will primarily be conducted in person but may also utilize videoconferencing, social media, and office applications as needed.
- Scholarship applicants will undergo a panel interview, written examination, and essay examination.
- Please be advised that participation in this academic scholarship screening is entirely VOLUNTARY and requires the consent of your parent or official guardian.

- For virtual screenings, the entire session will be recorded for official documentation purposes. These recordings will be considered school property. Under no circumstances are scholarship applicants, parents/guardians, or anyone outside the academic scholarship screening committee permitted to capture photos, take screenshots, or record video or audio during the screening.
- Scholarship applicants are expected to conduct themselves appropriately. Any inappropriate behavior or gestures may result in removal or disqualification from the screening process.

By participating in this academic scholarship screening, you consent to BCAS collecting your personal information and that of the scholarship applicant. The personal information gathered will be used solely for the purposes of the screening process and other related activities outlined in these guidelines, in compliance with the Data Privacy Act of 2012.

Consent and agreement

1. You confirm that you, the applicant, meet the eligibility requirements to participate in the academic scholarship screening.
2. You and your parent/guardian acknowledge and permit you, the applicant, to take part in the screening, and both of you agree to adhere to the screening guidelines.
3. You assure that you, the applicant, will complete the screening tasks independently.
4. You grant BCAS, along with its subsidiaries, affiliates, licensees, successors, and assigns, the right to create audio, visual, and audiovisual recordings (in any format or media) of your participation in the screening if conducted virtually.
5. You hereby waive, release, and discharge BCAS and its agents, promoters, employees, officers, directors, affiliates, successors, and assigns from any and all claims, demands, causes of action, lawsuits, damages, and liabilities of any kind, whether known or unknown, in law or equity, that you, your parent/guardian or the applicant have or may have, arising from or related to the applicant's participation in the screening.
6. This consent and agreement shall remain in effect after the screening concludes. Any amendments to this consent must be mutually agreed upon in writing by both you (with your parent/guardian) and BCAS, explicitly stating that it modifies this consent.
